Dear Chairman Steele,

Please accept the congratulations of the Republican National Lawyers Association (RNLA) on behalf of its 3,500 lawyers and law students who comprise the organization, on your recent election as Chairman of the Republican National Committee. Your election in the midst of the current climate in the country and the party is a testament to your qualifications, intellect, temperament and integrity.

We are grateful for your past membership in and support of the RNLA. We appreciate your past support of the RNLA, as a former speaker at our Annual Conference. You have honored us by your record, qualifications and demeanor. We look forward to working with you with what we anticipate will be your long and distinguished tenure as Chairman of the RNC.
